MANIFESTATION BABE

THE IMMUTABLE LAWS OF THE UNIVERSE

You've probably heard of the Law of Attraction, especially if you're now familiar with Manifestation Babe teachings.

But did you know that there are several other laws that govern the way that this Universe works?

Most commonly known as the "Immutable Laws of the Universe," each law beautifully coexists with the Law of Attraction to create a bigger picture.

In the best-selling movie, "The Secret," we are led to believe that in order to receive everything we want in life, we must only want it and visualize it. That would be correct, IF that were the only universal law to exist.

The other laws will explain why in order to be a powerful manifestor, you must get your booty off the couch and take inspired action.

And if you still don't receive what you want? There's a universal law that reminds you to be patient.

Use this guide as a quick look into the universal laws that make manifestation possible. It has been argued that there are more than 100 laws that govern the way that the Universe exists, evolves, and operates. However, in this resource, we'll be getting familiar with 18 of them to help you understand how to work WITH these laws of the Universe and make manifesting a much easier process!

WHAT ARE THE LAWS?

- The Law of Divine Oneness
- The Law of Vibration
- The Law of Action
- The Law of Mirrors (Correspondence)
- The Law of Cause & Effect (Karma)
- The Law of (Inspired) Attraction (Magnetism)
- The Law of Transmutation
- The Law of Compensation
- The Law of Relativity
- The Law of Polarity / Contrast
- The Law of Patterns (Rhythm)
- The Law of Balance (Masculine / Feminine)
- The Law of Reciprocity / Ayni
- The Law of Purpose (Dharma)
- The Law of Infinite Possibilities
- The Law of Unwavering Faith
- The Law of Constant Motion
- The Law of Free Will

HOW THE LAWS APPLY TO EVERYDAY LIFE & HOW TO USE THEM TO YOUR ADVANTAGE

THE LAW OF DIVINE ONENESS

- What is possible for someone else, is possible for me too.
- What is possible for me, is possible for all.
- Because we are all connected, it's extremely important to treat everyone the same way I would want to be treated.
- Everyone is inherently worthy and no one is more worthy than someone else.
- The moment I allow my ego to convince me of my separateness from others or from Source, I have violated (forgotten) this law.
- The work that we are doing is impacting other people whether we realize it or not (quantum entanglement).
- I am Source and Source is me.
- The powers I seek outside of me were always inside to begin with.

THE LAW OF VIBRATION

- Whenever I am ready to attract something new into my life, I know to shift my vibration (become an energetic match to something new).
- The version of myself who is already living the kind of new reality that I am calling in is vibrating at a certain frequency and all I need to do to attract that reality is to tap into that new frequency (more on this later).
- Vibration lies in your thoughts, beliefs, emotions, words, feelings, decisions, attitudes that all influence your energetic field (sound familiar? Internal state of consciousness!).
- Shifting your identity is the fastest way to shift your frequency.

THE LAW OF (INSPIRED) ACTION

- Just sitting on the couch listening to a meditation and visualizing won't bring your manifestations to fruition (even though that's excellent spiritual/mental action).
- There is PHYSICAL action involved, but it's not the kind of hustle/grind/hard work/exhaustion that we are taught is required of us in order to succeed.
- Inspired action is the kind of action we feel pulled, called, nudged to take from a place of being in alignment with the outcome or end result.
- Inspired action is when you take action in the energy of believing that you are ALWAYS being guided and your intuition is leading you step by step toward your desires.

THE LAW OF MIRRORS (CORRESPONDENCE)

- Whatever you see in your physical reality can be traced to the root cause inside of ourselves.
- Anytime you experience a frustrating situation or person, ask yourself, "what within me attracted this person or experience? And what was I meant to learn from this person or experience? And what can I now shift so that I attract a more aligned person/situation in the future?"
- If you didn't like what you see in a mirror, which part would you change? The reflection? Or the thing being reflected?
- Most people spend their entire lives pointing fingers at everyone else, waiting on them to be different, to change, to fix things.
- When change can ONLY be addressed within yourself.
- Whenever I personally get triggered, I always ask "what is unhealed within ME that is causing me to feel this way?" (I don't get caught up in the false belief that something outside of me has to change in order for me to feel differently or show up differently).

THE LAW OF CAUSE & EFFECT (KARMA)

- ONLY put out what YOU would want to receive.
- BE the kind of human you want to interact with.
- Live in integrity and live honestly (you cannot lie to yourself/Universe).
- Make decisions that are reflective of the reality you want to create and the world that you want to live in.
- The CAUSE = decisions we make, actions we take.
- The EFFECT = the results we get.
- The Universe is neutral and impartial to the seeds you sow and what you give. It will only return what you sow (interacting with the Law of Free Will).
- I find that what is returned is ALWAYS bigger than what is given.

THE LAW OF ATTRACTION (MAGNETISM)

- Know you're a magnet and you have the ability to magnetically attract WHATEVER it is that you want.
- Let go of the things that no longer serve you as they weaken your magnetism for the reality that you want (they clutter and dirty it up).
- Amplify your magnet by knowing you are inherently, innately worthy, deserving and enough — KNOW who you really are (more on this later).
- Vibration lies in your thoughts, beliefs, emotions, words, feelings, decisions, attitudes that all influence your energetic field (sound familiar? Internal state of consciousness!).

THE LAW OF TRANSMUTATION

- With the right, aligned focus, I can transmute and alchemize any energy into anything that I want.
- By living your most aligned life, being in your purpose, and showing up as your most authentic self, you will automatically inspire others to do the same.
- Higher vibration energies consume lower vibration energies —> why it's important to never force anyone to come onto this journey.
- Anyone who is trying to pull you down or convince you otherwise will not be able to impact you in any negative way once you understand this law.
- You will shift people out of their lower frequencies JUST being being you.
- Forcing someone else to change interferes with the Law of Free Will.

THE LAW OF COMPENSATION

- We will always be financially rewarded for showing up in life as our best selves (our Highest Selves).
- When you participate in making the world a better place, you are financially rewarded for it.
- This is why MBA results in blessings, prosperity, and money for those who commit to this kind of development.

THE LAW OF RELATIVITY

- When unwanted crap pops up in your reality, it doesn't mean you're a bad person.
- It doesn't mean you did anything wrong.
- It doesn't mean ANYTHING except the meaning you give it.
- There are certain lessons all of us have chosen to learn before incarnating here and the faster we can neutralize what it means about us, the faster we will learn the lesson we came here to learn.
- The faster we will also shift our vibration.
- Also why the practice of gratitude is so important —> it always gives us perspective of how in any situation things can always be worse.
- I used the Law of Relativity to bust through my launch plateau and regularly have 7-figure launches.

THE LAW OF POLARITY / CONTRAST

- Polarity creates clarity = we often get what we don't want, to remind us to get clearer on what we DO want.
- Exercises our focus muscle.
- Again, avoiding labels and judgements is so important. Nothing has meaning except for the meaning that we give it.
- Napoleon Hill from Outwitting The Devil: "Every adversity, every failure and every heartache carries with it the seed of equivalent or greater benefit".
- I appreciate failure, I appreciate adversity, and I appreciate heartache because it gives me the contrast I need to also appreciate all the success I have in my life too.

THE LAW OF PATTERNS (RHYTHM)

- Internal conflicts or internal alignment will manifest as a pattern that we can trace back to the root.
- The longer we ignore the pattern, the more pervasive it gets.
- “What you resist persists.”
- When something keeps showing up in your reality over and over again, you know there’s a pattern and you can trace that pattern back into the root.
- Honor the season you are in. We are not always meant to be in fall, harvesting.

THE LAW OF BALANCE (FEMININE / MASCULINE)

- Manifestation is a co-creative process of balancing both action and surrender at the same time.
- Pure hard work can’t bring success.
- Neither can pure surrender.
- Intention + action = real life magic.
- Knowing when to take action and when to surrender is the key to avoiding burnout and attachment.

THE LAW OF RECIPROCITY / AYNİ

- Whatever you give with an open heart (AND ZERO EXPECTATIONS) will be returned to you tenfold.
- The biggest mistake that people make is give WITH EXPECTATIONS... Especially expectations around the person they gave to.
- This applies to loaning money, btw. Even if the person you loaned money to is morally obligated to return that money, you cannot have expectations that they will!
- People are not the SOURCE of money... Source is the source of money.
- What you are owed through reciprocity will ALWAYS be returned to you through infinite avenues.

THE LAW OF PURPOSE (DHARMA)

- Your purpose has less to do with what you're doing and more to do with who you're BEING.
- Which frees you up to do just about ANYTHING.
- This is why being your authentic self and expressing your TRUE self is key to living your purpose.
- Naturally, from that place, you will be drawn to make use of your unique abilities, talents, and gifts and by following that call, you will activate the Law of Purpose/Dharma.
- I activated it when I started Manifestation Babe because teaching universal principles and helping others transform through those principles is my Dharma.
- This is why I have been immensely rewarded for the work I do... not because I'm special or different in this realm... but because I am following my honest, true, authentic calling.

THE LAW OF CONSTANT MOTION

- Change is always happening, you're either resisting it or going with it.
- "Resistance is futile" -Star Trek
- Change is something to be embraced.
- Momentum is a powerful force → once you gain momentum over something, it's time to go full force into it.
- Whenever I embark on a new life journey (like MBA) and the energy starts flowing to that journey, I make sure to go all in. Momentum will carry me to where I want to go.

THE LAW OF FREE WILL

- #1 reason why we cannot change other people (everyone has access to their Free Will).
- #1 reason why we can create ANYTHING we want (we have access to our own Free Will).
- All of our choices, decisions, and actions we take are ours to make.
- YOU are the creator... the artist... the conductor... the CEO of your life If you want something, there is no power outside of you that can keep you from pursuing it.

WHAT DO I DO WITH THESE LAWS?

- Digest them. Ponder them. Contemplate them. Meditate on them.
- They will show up as themes throughout your entire life
- Notice how they show up in your life & how you interact with each law.
- Are you making the most of each law?
- Come back to this resource every now and then to explore how your awareness of these laws and how you interact with them changes over time.
- Remember: AWARENESS IS EVERYTHING!

HAPPY MANIFESTING, BABE!

PS!

Is more money on your “to manifest” list?

More millionaires & billionaires are being created today than ever before in history - but if you're struggling to manifest the money you desire, there's a good chance your beliefs have something to do with it...

If you've ever had thoughts like...

- “If you wanna be rich, you have to be born rich.”
- “I’m not deserving of THAT kind of money.”
- “Money is a limited resource. I feel guilty wanting more.”
- “I can be rich or I can be happy - I can’t have it all.”
- “More money means more problems.”
- “Rich people are greedy & do bad things to get their wealth.”

THEN YOUR CORE BELIEFS ARE OUT OF ALIGNMENT WITH THE ABUNDANCE YOU DESIRE AND DESERVE!

IF YOU'RE READY TO TASTE TRUE EMOTIONAL & MENTAL FREEDOM AROUND MONEY, THEN IT'S TIME TO TAP INTO MASSIVE WEALTH BABE.

Inside my program, TAPPING INTO MASSIVE WEALTH, you'll be guided through a process called the Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT for short) to clear away thoughts, feelings and beliefs around money that are keeping you from manifesting the money you desire!
