My goal in this podcast is to help you see the infinite potential within yourself; to be, do, and have anything that your heart desires. Think of this podcast as your weekly dose of mindset development, helping maximize who you are and where you're going. Leave it to me to provide you with the tools, resources, strategies, and teachings that you need to manifest a reality wilder than your wildest dreams. I know we're about to have so much fun together. So, thank you so much for pushing play today. Now, let's begin. Listen, babe. If you woke up today, that means you still have a purpose. If you opened your eyes today, that means that you still matter. Yes, you listening to me right now. If you're still breathing right now, it means that the universe did everything in its power to keep your heart and lungs going through the night, enough to get you up to serve those that you're supposed to serve, including yourself. The universe wants you here. Because of this, you need to realize that you have a choice. You can either choose to be grateful for all the little things in life that you so often take for granted, or you can wait; wait for days, weeks, years, maybe even decades for something outside of you to change, before you feel grateful for your life. So often you may forget that the very fact that you have the eyes to find this podcast episode; the sensation of touch to push play on this episode today; and the ears to even be listening to this episode right now; this means that you are a walking miracle here for another day. What you choose to do today is up to you. What you choose to get out of bed for today is up to you. How you choose to fulfill your purpose is up to you. How you choose to live up to your limitless potential is up to you. No one is going to remind you of these truths, because everyone else is too busy focusing on life outside of themselves to even remember that they are a walking, talking, breathing, and living miracle. Something got you up this morning. Something knows that you have a purpose much bigger than you can ever imagine. Nature never wastes its resources, and that sure as hell means that you are not here by accident. Today, you are graced with another day here on Planet Earth, and tomorrow is not guaranteed. You are meant to say something to someone today, giving them the message that they have been waiting for. You are meant to smile at someone today, brightening their day. You are meant to give to someone today, giving meaning in their life. You are meant to help someone today, completely changing their life. Yes, you. Your life is far bigger than you. If you woke up today, you still have a purpose. How are you going to live up to that today? Thank you so much for tuning into today's episode.
