Welcome to the Manifestation Babe Podcast. My name is Kathrin Zenkina, and I'm a manifestation expert, master mindset coach, and a multiple seven-figure entrepreneur. I'm obsessed with helping you achieve everything that you once thought was impossible. If you're looking to massively uplevel your life, your finances, your relationships, your productivity, and success, you have come to the right place. My goal in this podcast is to help you see the infinite potential within yourself to be, do, and have anything that your heart desires. Think of this podcast as your weekly dose of mindset development to help you maximize who you are and where you're going. Leave it to me to provide you with tools, resources, strategies, and teachings that you need to manifest a reality wilder than your wildest dreams. I know we're about to have so much fun together, so thank you so much for pushing play today. And now, let's begin. Listen, babe. Here's the real thing that's holding you back from attracting the financial abundance that you deserve. It is not about your ability to create wealth. It is not your background. It is not your story. It is not where you come from. It is not any of the reasons that you think are holding you back from seeing the numbers that you so desire in your bank account. It is your identity - your financial identity. Unless you can comfortably say, "I am a wildly wealthy woman," you will never become that wildly wealthy woman. Not because you don't deserve it, aren't worthy of it, or aren't capable of it; but because you don't see the energy of wealth as the same energy as you. The thing is, everything in this universe is made up of energy. Money is just a medium of exchange that transfers energy from one person to another - and not in a zero-sum way that most of us are conditioned to believe, where when one person receives more energy, another one loses that energy - but in a way that creates more for both and more for all. When one becomes unapologetic about her wealth, she empowers and gives permission to another; she allows another to rise with her. When one rises, all the others see it's possible for them too. By you transferring energy to me and me transferring energy to you, as we already are doing by this podcast listening exchange, we create more of it; we amplify it; we expand with the universe because the universe is limitless and keeps expanding, whether we are ready for it or not. With this expansion, it's so important to recognize that what we are not ready to claim as ours will never be ours. So, in order to create more wealth in your life, you must become wealth. You must shift your identity to be a more empowering "I am" statement when it comes to money and success. What typically comes after "I am" for you? Is it empowering or disempowering? Are you comfortable claiming, "I am a wildly wealthy woman"? Are you confident stating, "I am a multi-millionaire just for being my authentic self"? Even if this may not be the case for you yet, it's important to claim this right now. Speak it into existence. Match the vibration of wealth on an energetic level; feel as if it's already true. Claim it as if it's already true. The only way to create more wealth in your life is to become it now. Don't wait, otherwise you'll be waiting a lifetime - and you don't want that, do you? So, whatever comes after the words "I am" shows up in your reality. What are you ready to show up in your reality? What are you choosing to claim as part of your identity today? What follows "I am" for you? Thank you so much for tuning into today's episode.
